Four Agencies Join AARP for Harrison Town Hall Meeting

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS (April 21, 2010) —Four state agencies are partnering this year with the AARP to hold a town hall-style meeting in Harrison on Tuesday, April 27, 2010, at the Durand Conference Center at North Arkansas College, 303 North Main. The Arkansas Insurance Department joins the Office of the Attorney General, the Department of Human Services Division of Aging and Adult Services, and the Arkansas Securities Department to present this meeting for seniors which will focus on fraud in insurance, securities, and Medicare as well general discussions on senior issues. Joining these state agencies and AARP will be Ramon B. Harvey an attorney specializing in elder law and special needs trusts.

Experts will make presentations and take questions from the audience. The meeting begins with registration at 8:30 a.m. and ends at 12:30 p.m. with a complimentary lunch. Advanced registration is required and may be made by calling 1-877-926-8300. The registration deadline for the Harrison meeting is April 23, 2010.

Other meeting locations in this series include Magnolia on May 10, 2010, and Clarksville on September 20, 2010. Anyone with questions about these meetings is encouraged to call the Senior Health Insurance Information Program of the Arkansas Insurance Department at 1-800-224-6330.
