SUBJECT: TRANSITIONAL POLICIES EXTENSIONS TO ACA IN THE NON-GRANDFATHERED INDIVIDUAL AND SMALL GROUP MARKET

This Bulletin replaces and supersedes AID Bulletin # 7-2016, “Transitional Policies Extensions to ACA in the Non-Grandfathered Individual and Small Group Market.” The present Bulletin is in response to a recent February 23, 2017 guidance from the Center for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight (“CCIIO”) entitled, “Insurance Standards Bulletin Series -- INFORMATION -- Extension of Transitional Policy through Calendar Year 2018.” The guidance pertains to transitional policies or small group and individual policies that were issued between March 23, 2010 and December 31, 2013. The February 23, 2017 guidance offers to States an additional extension of time for non-grandfathered individual and small group “transitional policies” to comply with all PHS Act reforms including those related to single risk pools until December 31, 2018.

In AID Bulletin # 7-2016, AID offered to issuers of transitional policies, in both the individual and small group markets, an extension to comply with all ACA reforms until the end of the 2018. AID adopts the latest extension in the February 23, 2017 guidance in both the individual and small group markets which permits transitional policy issuers to delay compliance with all PHS Act or ACA reforms until December 31, 2018. Policies renewed under this transitional policy must not extend past December 31, 2018. Transitional policy issuers in both the individual and small group markets are however permitted, but are not required, to transition their policies into the required ACA reforms or mandates within a shorter period of time in their discretion.
